PREFACE

If a man lives for 100 years, did you ever think, what could be the number of days he can live?

Considering 365 days per year, it counts to $100 \times 365 = 36,500$ days. That means, a person can live 36,500 days in his complete 100 years of age. Now a days, it became unusual for a person to live up to 100 years. As the average life span of human beings is gradually coming down, it is fortunate enough to live for 60 years in the current scenario. Even if a person is alive after 60 years of age, he should go through many tough and unfavorable conditions and he may also become burdensome for others. He will not be in a position to handle his personal tasks.

So, let us consider 60 years to be the moderate age of a person. If we calculate the number of days he lives, it comes up to $60 \times 365 = 21,900$ days. People having approximately 30 years of age might have already completed half of their life. Remaining half is not even containing 11,000 days. Also, we are not sure that we will be living all these 60 years without any issues.

There is a quote “Every day is a threat to face in the life of hundred years”. But now a days we should take in to account, the threat for each second rather than a day, as the expiry date of our life is unpredictable and it can happen even in fraction of a second.

We have discussed all these things to know how short and small our life is.! A human who cannot even live for 30,000 days strives hard to have a stable life on this earth. He is deceiving himself for enjoying this transient life.

Think about that once.

As people who are willing to know and extract the truth, please spare some time to study and think about this book and make a conclusion how to spend rest of your life. If you neglect this truth now, there will be a day when you will definitely reconsider for wasting your valuable time. So, kindly study the book completely.

May you be blessed with peace and enter into the Gods glory realm.

Satya Darshanam

“Alexander the Great” is the prominent conqueror who has won many battles against different countries. He extended his kingdom by declaring treacherous battles and by killing many people ruthlessly.

There was a time when he suffered from a severe fever unexpectedly. He felt not to worry about it, as it seemed to be a normal fever. But, as the days passed by, his condition became worse with chronic and persistent high-grade fever. Temperature went on increasing in spite of all the treatment he underwent. At last he was in his death bed. In that situation he spoke to the people around him asking them,

“I am dying. Will you people arrange a casket for carrying my body after my death?”

Then people said to him “We must do that”.

He ordered them

“Make two holes on both sides of my casket and extend my hands outside, while the whole body is present inside the closed casket. Also, the doctors who were unable to save my life must carry my casket and walk along with it till the burial ground.

Those doctors will testify that “If God doesn’t give chance for someone to live, no efforts and medicines can help him to survive”.

Because, I am the one who wished to conquer the whole world and make it as my kingdom. I have taken away many lives and gained great victories, but I am unable to enjoy the triumph even for 5 years. I had to end up my life at the age less than 33 years. I am able to keep the whole world in my control, but not my own life. I understood that my life is only in the control of God. I haven’t given any message to people all through my life. So, at least I wish to give them a message through my death.

There are many ignorant people who are struggling to win this world by earning sumptuously and enjoying that luxury. Through my bare hands, I want to convey a truth for those people, that I came into this world with bare hands, and strived hard to achieve success day and night by sacrificing food and rest. I may have succeeded in my trials of combat, but have lost all the pleasure and happiness in my life by dying at a very small age. I can not take any of my achievements with me, instead have to leave with bare hands. Whatsoever you do in your whole life, there will be one day when you should leave the world with bare hands. This truth stands for the life of everyone.”

That’s true. If we examine this kind of situations, we can see that many of the emperors, kings, presidents, prime ministers, great actors, well known doctors etc. who changed the course of history have become ashes, and some of them were decomposed to soil. Can we contradict this scenario?

Every start has an end. Likewise, life of every human being is having a start and an end. If there is no end for our life, there is no need to bother how to spend our life. But, it’s a fact that there is one unpredictable day when we have to leave this earth. Hence, each one of us is having an urge to be responsible for how our life should end. But, most of us are neglecting this important aspect.

Even after noticing the people who started their life after us, lived in front of us, but are dead now, we are not realizing that we will also have such an unexpected death. We always think that “They might have died, but why will that situation ever happen to me? I will not die that easily. I will always have a stable life”. These days many people keep deceiving themselves to satisfy their hearts with such statements.

There are some people who are going through suicidal tendencies. If we listen to people who attended the funeral of their friend, relative or neighbor, will often make statements like “Even after substantial struggle, he couldn’t take anything of what he owned.”, “This life is temporary and uncertain”. These statements make people drown into depression.

But did you observe that the same people who have given the above statements, will forget them, and turn back to their routine soon after the funeral. They will not realize the truth in those statements and the fact that there is another eternal life after the death. They still continue to lead a suffocated life in their own trap. They will think about death and life only when they stand in the burial ground.

You...! who are reading this book, should think in a different manner, unlike the people mentioned above.

Now a days people are so busy that they can't even think or study, what the actual truth can be. God has given us 24 hours per day, but we are in a situation of not being able to give at least one hour to think about God. Instead, we are spending our time in earning money for us and our families, looking after pleasures etc... We will remember Spirituality and devotion, only when we are having a hazardous problem or disease, which has no medicine, and are in a helpless situation near to death. There are some ignorant people who will not think about God even in that situation. This makes their life go in vain. That is why, now itself, we should start to think and know about our life, its creator and our end.

Does God exist?

These are the days when people are getting more civilized, and they have grown to an extent of following atheism, by right away declaring that "God doesn't exist". Most of them believe that man is self-made by developing his wisdom gradually. They bring an argument that man himself is God and no other God exists.

Can a pot molds itself without the need of a potter? It can't. Because, it needs a potter who puts clay in to potter's wheel or kiln to finish a pot. Also, no building can build itself. It needs a builder or engineer who creates a design and build a perfect structure. Likewise, is it possible for a man to create this universe which is beautiful having all the essential needs of mankind? Don't you think that there should be someone who has arranged all these things in a proper manner? What a wonder it is! If there is a pot, there must be a potter. If there is a building, there must be a builder. Similarly, if there is a creation, there must be a creator.

If the distance between earth and sun is slightly increased, then earth would turn into a snow ball. If incase the distance is slightly decreased, earth would have definitely turned to ashes. The distance between both of them is maintained in such a way that it is feasible for mankind to live in that environment. Also, it is the main reason for proper seasonal changes on earth that allows human beings to sustain. Do all these arrangements were done unanticipatedly?

Let us think about another issue. We knew about oxygen which is helping us to survive on this earth, from the day we were born. What can you say about the creation of air? Is this also a creation of man? Imagine what will happen if supply of oxygen is suspended for more than 5 minutes! It can lead to the destruction of life on this earth. But, we never had such issue. We are able to inhale oxygen every time without any interruption. Who must be reason for this?

If any intellectual person examines the anatomy of human body, he will easily get to know that it turns to be an impossible task for a man to make that. There must be someone who made each of our body parts like limbs, nerves, bones, pulse etc. peculiarly with utmost care. Also, the biology is designed separately for male and female which serves for human reproduction. Isn't it clear that someone has created us deliberately?

Soon after giving birth to a baby, Woman starts producing colostrum, a nutrient rich milk. After six months, as that strength from milk is not sufficient for baby, production of teeth is seen to assist the baby for eating solid food. If we keep examining things like this, we can see many such wonderful things all around us.

A cell which is smaller than an atom turns into a 6 feet body with all the parts. How is it possible? Is it unexpected? If we sow a seed, it gets sprouted up from the earth and grows into a huge tree and gives thousands of fruits. Who must have given that strength to earth? Who has given a protection layer for all those fruits?

Do all these people who kept arguing that God doesn't exist, are successful in stopping death? Are they able to help man to have an eternal life on this earth? Can anyone manufacture a human cell? There are thousands of such questions we can ask an atheist, which are not having an accurate answer. But, still they are happy to continue in their belief.

Keeping all these things aside, let us search for the answer of these two questions. "Is it good to believe that God exists?" Or "Is it good to believe that God doesn't exists?" It is clear that each one of us should definitely die one day. So, let us think about the scenario after our death. Suppose you are a person who believed in the existence of God and lived carefully following his commandments, and have died one day. After your death, you got to know that there is no such God whom you worshiped. Is there any loss for you by living a holy life? No...! But, consider that you have spent all your life wasting it in unnecessary fun thinking that God never existed, and have died. What will be your situation if God really exists and you are supposed to take punishment for all your doings?

So, without going into unwanted logics, it is better to believe God and serve his commandments like an infant with pure heart. Discovering God, respecting him, worshipping him and serving him are great blessings to a person.

There are atheists who are having questions like “Did you see God? Show me if God exists...!”. As an answer to this question I can tell,

“Brother, you will definitely see God one day. But, there is a specific time for that. You are not an immortal person. There is a second when you should permanently leave this earth. That day, you will definitely be able to see God. That will be the day when you tremble and shake before God remembering all your preaching, writings and propaganda you made against God, thinking that you are intelligent and wise enough in the world. So, I just want to warn you to be careful for what you are going to face in future.”

What will happen to a person after death?

Various religious books had given different kinds of explanation for what can happen to a man after his death. We need to examine all of those books and conclude the truth. Most of them testified that “Even after death, a person’s soul will still be alive”. Each of these books is having a different explanation for what is going to happen to the soul. This is the aspect that needs our attention.

In Hindu scriptures there is an argument that “After his death, a person’s soul will reincarnate in to a new body of another living creature”. Also, the second argument is like “After his death, a person’s soul is going to encounter with God and that will be subjected to judgement. If he is proved to be sinful then his soul reaches the hell, else it reaches the heaven”.

If we look into both of these explanations, the latter seems quite acceptable. Former seems to be unreasonable. Because, if each soul is going to enter different bodies, production of living creatures is not feasible.

For example, consider that God has created 1000 people. As their soul's get repeated in different bodies, there should only be 1000 souls existing on this earth till now. But it is not the fact. Each body is having a unique soul.

Population on the earth is gradually increasing day by day. If the above scenario is true, we should not see any growth in population, as number of souls is restricted. Also, there is no point to justify that God is creating new bodies each time with the same soul.

Coming to the second argument, the fact of each soul getting subjected to judgement after death, is accepted by almost all the religious books. Also, there is no matter like reincarnation of that same soul. In that judgement, each soul is going to get the fruit of its virtue or punishment for the sins that it has done in the lifetime, which is eternal. If this is the case, there will be some meaning for God's creation. Because, with this judgement God is separating all the people as holy or sinful according the life style they had on this earth.

There will be some people who may question like "How can you confirm that this judgement can happen? Did you see that?" May be, we should look into this matter carefully. As we have discussed before, it is always good to think in a negative sense before having a positive thought. We are having a quote "Prevention is better than cure". Here, there is no cure, as the punishment is eternal. So, it is better to believe that there is hell, as we will not loose anything even if it is not there. But, imagine what would be the situation if you spent all your life believing that hell doesn't exist, and after your death you realized that it exists...!

As an Intellectual person, think about these scenarios once. Will there be any option for us to correct ourselves after the judgement? It won't. We can correct ourselves only when we are alive. So, this is the time you need to think and correct your opinion about our life. Because, we never know when our life is going to end. Neglecting these things will definitely be a stupid choice.

Why will God send a soul to hell?

A person's soul reaches hell, when that person has led his life in sinful acts, with out following the commandments of God.

What is the actual meaning of “Sin”?

“Sin can be explained as transgression of the law of God. It is sinful to do things that God has ordered us not to do. Also, it is sinful not to do things that God has ordered us to do.”

If we observe the lives of different people, not even a single person among 10 people is respecting the word of God. Everyday we are doing things that are displeasing to God through our actions, words, thoughts and works etc. There is not even a single person who did not commit any mistake on this earth. To be precise, “man is sinful”, right from his birth. Because, sin is hereditary from a person to his child, like some diseases. Hence, from the day of his birth, the behavior and attitude of man is sinful by default. A kid knows how to escape by telling lie, even when no one teaches him. This is the reason they are growing in sinful thoughts and deeds right from their childhood.

By this explanation it is clear that all of us are sinners and no one can escape the hell. As it is written in Arya Dharma (One of the prominent Hindu scriptures)

“Paapada vasyam maranam prayaati.

Paapada vasyam narakam prayaati”

Which means, no sinner can escape the death and hell.

However, is there a way to escape from this punishment of getting thrown into hell? What are the various ways that different religions are showing about this?

I have spoken to some brothers in Islam, about what could be the way to get saved from hell. I asked them “Brother, man is sinful right from his birth. Every religious book is strictly telling that there is a horrific punishment for that. Is there any way for man to get saved from that dangerous hell, according to your religion?”. Then they replied “In our religion, the only and primary sin is worshipping Gods other than Allah. Other than this, nothing is considered as a great sin. We can get cleansed from sin by repenting for what we have done. Another way to get saved from all our sins by visiting Mecca once in our life time. Also, following strict prayer (namaaz) timings, fasting days and serving poor can save a person from reaching hell.”

After thinking about all these, my conscience did not accept the teachings that, following those kinds of traditions may not be a proper way to get cleansed from our sins. I have asked them again “God should not be unlawful, he should not disobey the truth. If he is unlawful then he is not God.”

If repentance can save a person from sin, then will anyone stop committing a sin? Won't they keep repeating the same mistake? They will. Because, it only needs repentance to get saved from that sin.

Then I asked him “Suppose, I have killed someone. His family got destroyed. After that I have repented, followed the prayer timings and fasted strictly. By doing all these, can I get saved from my sin? If that is true, how will God justify that to his family.”

Then what is justice for that? Punishing the sinner will only be the justice. Without realizing that, Islamic brothers are strongly believing that only repentance and good deeds can save a person.

Think about this once. Is their belief looks satisfactory? As explained above, man is not stopping himself from committing sins. Instead rate of sin is increasing rapidly day by day. Where is justice for all this?

I have also searched in the holy books of my Hindu religion to get an answer for “What a person can do to get saved from his sins?”.

There are two different ways mentioned in Hindu Puranas and Vedas. Most of the Hindu brothers are believing that, offering a sacrifice to God will cleanse us from all kinds of sins and helps us to reach heaven. That is why, people are doing many religious rituals and sacrifices like puja, recitations, meditations, animal sacrifices, fasting, annual festivals and occasional pilgrimages etc.

We can see another issue here. “Is it justice to punish a sinful person? Or to leave that person after accepting his sacrifice? Does God really consider all such sacrifices?”

If God accepts our offerings and saves us from all our sins, how can he become a truthful judge and righteous person? It is nothing less than corruption. God should not support all these sins by accepting the offerings.

So, what most of the people are believing doesn't seem to be true. It is 100% true that God never accepts our offerings. They are nothing before him. People who are intelligent will surely think about all these without getting annoyed.

There is another argument in Vedas, explained by Aryan's telling that *“Paapoham, Paapakarmaanaam, Paapaatma, Paapasambhava, Traahimam krupayaa deva, Saranaagatha vatsala,

Anyadhaa saranam naasti twameva saranam mamah”*

It means, “I am a sinner, who is doing sinful works, even my soul is in sin, I was born in sin. Dear graceful God, who is showering love, it is not possible for me to get saved from my sins. I am not having any way other than you.”

It clearly tells that man can't save himself from his sins. He needs God's help. Christianity also agrees with that point.

What do Christians believe?

“A sinner, getting punished for his sins is justice.”

This is what the law in Bible proclaims. But there is a critical problem here. God, the creator, is our father. At the same he is our judge. Suppose, if he thinks in the place of our father, he saves us from sin to make us happy. But He will be questionable for justice. Because, even God should respect and follow the Law, to be an example for us. If He punishes us respecting the law, we have the right to question him as he is our father.

We can ask him like “God, you are the creator who knew the future. You already knew about how our behavior can change in future. You should not have created us, so that there will not be any sin and hell. Now, being a judge, you are telling that we should get punished for our sins. You are our father. How are you going to save us?”. That is why “The Lord”, who has the knowledge of past, present and future, has searched for a solution before creating us.

What is that solution? To understand this scenario better, let me give you an illustration.

There was a judge who is good, honest and lawful. He brought up his son with utmost care and love. When that son grew up, he got into many wrong friendships. He became a murderer, did many crimes and sinful acts along with his friends. He used to disrespect his father by ignoring all his words. Finally, one day he got caught by the police for all the illegal acts. Police surrendered him in the court for judgement.

Unfortunately, the Judge for that case is his own father. Judge sat on his chair. The accused has entered the jury box. People are looking interestingly at the judge, because they are eager to know what judgement he is going to give for his son.

All the arguments were finished. All the witnesses and testimonies were submitted to the judge. Judge has examined all those details. He then asked the accused, “Are you guilty of all these crimes?”. Son just nodded his head and looked down in shame. Judge has given the verdict, “After examining all the details furnished, and as the accused found guilty for all the acts, he should get death penalty according to I.P.C. section 302”.

All the people surrounding them were in shock and started to clap louder, listening to that judgement. Because, the Judge did not consider the relation he is having with the culprit, but he followed the law honestly. He ordered the police to hang him on 5th of next month, at 6:00 AM. Judgement was finished.

Judge came out of the courtroom. Who is he now? A father. He went to his son. Son was sitting on the floor inside the jail, hung his head down in shame. He then asked, “Are you sad for getting death penalty?”. Son has replied, “I am not feeling sad for getting death penalty, but I am sad for being born to a person like you who loves honesty and law more than his son.”. Son has shown his distress to father. “Do you know why I came to you now?”, asked the father. Son has answered “May be to visit your son who is going to die soon.”

Father said to his son, “You might have thought that, “my father did justice to the case, but he didn’t even think about me being his only son.”. I need to be honest as a Judge when I am dealing with a crime. That is why I have given you this punishment. But now, as a father I have responsibility to save my child. I came here only for that.”

Son looked at him questionably. He said “Yes, I came only to save you from this punishment.”. “How are you going to save me father? If you cancel this punishment and relieve me, it means that you disobeyed the law.”, asked the son. Father said “Yes, we cannot escape from punishment. But, the punishment will not be given to you, it will be given to me. I will be the one, who replaces you on the day of punishment. I love justice the same way I love you. I cannot disobey the law. So, I had to subject you to this punishment. Also, I cannot stay silent seeing my only son dying in front of me. So, I want to deliver you from this by bearing all your sins, and want to give you another chance to change”. I want you to lead a proper life at least from now.” After telling this, he went to the jury committee and said “I wish to take the place of my son and die instead of him. This gives my son another chance to live a proper life. I am ready to bear his sins and to pay the debt of life in his place. As I am asking this as a father, please cooperate with me by supporting this.”. Jury committee has accepted the proposal. The father replaced his son in the jail. Son got relieved from the punishment.

The time has come for executing the punishment. Officers came to him and asked “Sir, we would be hanging you by this time tomorrow. Do you have any last wish? If yes, please tell us about that.”. The Judge answered “As far as I know authorities will not allow the family members of the accused to see the execution of the individual. But, I want my son to be there with me and see me while getting hanged. I want a chance to die before him. This is my last wish before dying.”

Next day early in the morning, the Judge was hanged in front of his son. Son started crying out louder in grief, by seeing his father's pain, who took the punishment of death because of his sins. He hated himself for all the crimes he committed."

In this story, the father has achieved the following factors.

1. As a Judge, he is honest in punishing the criminal.
2. As a father, he has taken all the burdens of his son on him and saved him.
3. He has changed the heart of his son by sacrificing his life.

That son can never go into the same sinful path. Even if he wanted to go, the sacrifice of his father will stop him from taking that step.

It is not sure whether any court in this world will accept a person to bare the punishment of another person, but the court of our God accepted it. We should get the punishment for all our sins according to God's strict law. Being our father and creator, God has saved us just like the judge mentioned in the story above. God's love and sacrifice has helped all of us to change ourselves as a righteous person. There is no other way for us to get saved from our sins, other than him replacing us in our punishment.

"The only father who gave his life for his children, sacrificing the eternal glory, is Christ Jesus and we are those children!".

To explain in brief, children should definitely take the punishment for their mistakes or their father can take that instead of them. Is it feasible for a normal person to bare the sins of another person? It isn't. Because, all of us are sinners. Each one of us is having their own burden of sins. This is why, we needed someone who is holy without committing any sin, to bare our sins and save us. The only God who has come like that, for saving us, is Christ Jesus.

Long ago this logic was revealed to some of the Hindu saints, who had mentioned this in Vedas. In "Thandiya maha brahmanam" of Saamaveda,

“sarvapaapa parihaarardho, rakta prokshanamavasyam, Tadraktam paramaatmena, punyadaana baliyaagam”

That means “To save human beings from their sins, God should shed His pure blood for them.”

Who is the God who has shed the blood?

Among all the known Gods or Goddesses, are there anyone who had given their life to save their children? If there is someone like that, then you don’t need Jesus in your life.

If a Christian die at this movement he will definitely have one hope. If his soul comes to judgement, he will have Jesus to answer instead of him for all his sins. He will testify of your works. Jesus says,

“This person has put his trust on me, accepted all his sins in front of me and left all of them. I have carried all his burden on me and taken his punishment, by replacing him on the cross. I have given my life for him. So, he can get relieved from his sins.”

Is there any other God who can testify like that for us, or who has died for us? Is there any God who is as holy as Jesus without any sin? There is no one. If we examine their lives, each of them is having human nature and are slaves to Arishadvarga (Lust, Anger, Greed, Attachment, Pride and Jealousy) as mentioned in Vedas. There are loopholes in their lives also. They have done similar sins like us. (referring to puranas)

Brother/Sister who is reading the book, you too have got an inner sense. Think without being a religious admirer and deceiving your soul. In the religion and faith that you are believing, is there anyone who can take away your sins and relieve you from hell? You are the one who is responsible to find out the answer. The decision is left to you.

If you neglect all these facts, “You will have to encounter a great loss in your life, eternal difficulties after death and unextinguished fire for ages.”. Because, one day everyone of us should leave this world.

Also, in many slokas of Brahmanas it is written,

“Ambaswapaare bhaavanasyamadhye
Naakasya vrushte mahatho mahiyaan
Sukrena jyothiganshi, saa anu pravishnaha
Prajapatishcharati, garbheanthaha”

It means, “when savior is born to save people from sins, there appears a special star on the sky”. When Jesus was born on the earth, a special star was visible to wise men, which guided them to the God.

In page number 41 of Brahmanas in Atharwa veda, it is written

“Chatwari, srujgaatrayo asya paadaadwe sirshe sapta
Hastaato asya tridha baddo vrushabho roraviti
Mahodevo maryaam aavivesa ithi”

It means, “creator will come to this earth as a human and will become an offering in fire.”

Likewise, there are many slokas where Jesus is clearly mentioned in Vedas. Saints in Vedas have seven kinds of Yaga (rituals). One of them is “Azaamedham”. This one clearly propagates about Jesus and his sacrifice on cross.

“Prajapatirdhevebhyam aatmanaam yagnam, krutvaapraayaschit”

Meaning: To remove the burden of sins, creator should burn in fire as an atonement.

Also, it is written in “Bhavishya puraana”, pratisarga parvam, about salivaahana. He once went above Himagiri peak. There he has seen a person with white clothes. He asked that great man, who he is? The man answered, “kabhavaaniti tam praahaa shobho vacha mudaanvitham

eesaputrancha maamviddhi kumaari garbha sambhavam mlechcha dharmasya vakthaaram masehuham samaagataahah
Aham eshaamassiha naama”

It means,” I am the son of God, who is going to be born as a son of a virgin. I am the truth who owns the name “Jesus”.”

Also, even Swami Vivekananda testified about Jesus Christ. In the first and second pages of book called “Prabodha ratnakam”, three things are clearly written about Jesus Christ.

1. We cannot know the God, but we can only know about the son of God through a man called Jesus Christ.
2. Christ is taking away the sins of mankind. There is no other way to destroy our sins other than Christ who bore our sins.
3. Swami Vivekananda said, there is no incompleteness in Christ. It means that all the other Gods whom he served are incomplete. After reading their lives, even we feel the same.

There are many such instances written by great persons and saints in Vedas and other scriptures, which testifies about Christ.

So, dear brothers/sisters, do you know who Christ is? Do you know that you are mocking at your creator thinking that he is the God of only two castes? You are scorning that Jesus is the God of western people. Not only that, you are taunting a great person who is being adored by many saints in Vedas.

Jesus Christ is not the God of western people or of eastern people. “Jesus Christ is the Lord, of all.”. At least today you think about it and believe in Jesus and give your heart to him. Then you and your family will get salvation.

Finally, I would like to conclude by providing some more information.

Characteristics of God, The creator:

1. He must be the only creator of universe who can make it stable and perfect.
2. He must be holy without any sin.
3. He must be honest, truthful and should follow the law.
4. Without destroying the people in sin, he must be able to show them a way to get saved from their punishment.
5. He must have victory against all the worldly pleasures and feelings.
6. He must be able to tell the beginning, current state and end of the creation.
7. He must show utmost love to the world.
8. He should not expect any benefits.
9. He must set an example to mankind, for how to live on this earth.
10. Without having differences of region, religion, race or caste, he must love each one of us like our father.
11. He must be happy in forgiving, loving and saving instead of punishing.
12. He must be simple and down to earth.
13. He must have victory over death.

Just examine if any other God is having all the above-mentioned characteristics. When I searched for a God having all these characteristics, I have found only one. He is the Lord Jesus Christ. You can also examine his characteristics and check whether that is true.

3. Revelation 15:3 – Great and marvelous are your deeds, Lord God Almighty. Just and true are your ways, king of the ages.
4. Psalms 89:14 – Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne; love and faithfulness go before you.
5. Revelation 1:5 – He loves us and has freed us from our sins by his blood.
6. Revelation 4:8 – Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come.
7. Revelation 1:8 – “I am the Alpha and the Omega,” says the Lord God, “who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty”.
8. Ephesians 3:19 – And to know his love that surpasses knowledge - that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.
9. Acts 17:25 – He is not served by human hands, as if he needed anything, because he himself gives all men life and breath and everything else.
10. 1Peter 2:21 – Christ suffered for you, leaving you an example, that you should follow his steps.
11. Acts 10:34-36 – I now realize how true it is that God does not show favoritism but accepts men from every nation who fear him and do what is right. You know the message God sent to the people of Israel, telling the good news of peace through Jesus Christ, who is Lord of all.
12. John 8: 1-11 – “Then neither do I condemn you” Jesus declared. “Go now and leave your life of sin.”.
13. Philippians 2:5-8 – Your attitude should be the same as that of Christ Jesus: who, being in very nature God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, but made himself nothing, taking the very nature of a servant, being made in human likeness. And being found in appearance as a man, he humbled himself and become obedient to death – even death on the cross.

14. 1Corinthians 15:3-4 – For what I received I passed on to you as of first importance: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, then he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the scriptures.

All these scriptures are making it clear that Jesus Christ is the real God who has victory over death, and he is the one who came to this earth to save the mankind from all their sins.

We can never console a baby who is missing her mother's lap. She will not be peaceful. She will be happy only when she reaches her mother. Only then she will get relieved from that pain.

Likewise, even if we worship and praise other Gods, we will not have peace in our life as we move away from our creator. Christ is our creator and mother. He is the one who can provide cure to our disease, peace to our mind and salvation to our soul.

I have placed all the three religious views before you. Please examine which can be the truth. Conclude the correct path to follow, after considering all the scenarios I have mentioned in the book. Choose that path and get saved from the eternal punishment.

If you want to know more about Jesus, try studying the Bible for more information.

It will be a blessed act, if you can introduce this book to many others and show them to the correct path to believe.

Abstract

If we see the life style of the current generation, everyone looks always busy with thoughts of earning money, enjoying pleasures of life and to make life cheerful. They forget that when there is a beginning for their life, there will definitely be an end to it. At the end they are losing all the money, family they earned in this world and leaving the earth suddenly. A person is suffering for the whole life just to earn money, and he remembers the creator only at the last moments of his life.

When people are in the comfort zone, no one thinks like “Who can be the creator? Why did he create me? Is death really the end of my life or is there any life after death?”. Even when they enter the temple they spend their whole time asking for the worldly desires and needs. No one actually cares about the eternal life which is present after the death. Also, whomever we meet – They will always be busy with some or the other work. They are not even spending an hour to think about God in the whole day of 24 hours. They will not even spare at least ten minutes. They instead think that whoever thinks about God is an ignorant, useless, jobless and keeps mocking him as saint.

But, God is searching for people who is thinking about Him. A person who knew this, will strive hard to find out the mysteries of God, about who is the real God and how to make Him happy. There are only few people in this world who thinks like that. Expecting you to be one of those. God will definitely reveal himself to those people. God bless.
